

Join the Voices of RECOVERY

The 2002 National Alcohol & Drug Addiction Recovery Month will highlight the contributions of treatment providers and will promote the benefits of substance abuse treatment. This vital program lets people know that substance abuse and addiction are public health problems that can be effectively managed if supported by the entire community.

A Call to Action

Recovery Month 2002 September Observance:

- Recovery Month toolkit includes materials for outreach to media, constituency groups and special audiences
- Recovery Month 2002 kick-off media event
- Community Forums and Events across the country to raise awareness about substance abuse, treatment and recovery
- State and local celebrations and activities
- Live web-based events

All materials available May 2002 through the SAMHSA/CSAT web site www.samhsa.gov, then click on the Recovery Month logo

Contact the Center for Substance Abuse Treatment at 301-443-5052 for more details

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration
Center for Substance Abuse Treatment
www.samhsa.gov